Keewaytinook Internet High School Secondary School Classroom Teacher – Mentor with a background in social studies

Keewaytinook Board of Education is seeking a KiHS classroom teacher to work in one of our partner remote First Nation communities for full-time employment starting August 19, 2024.

Keewaytinook Internet High School (KiHS) is a multi-site blended learning high school which allows students to remain in their home community while taking a rich variety of ministry inspected courses toward their Ontario Secondary School Diploma. KiHS has been in operation for over 20 years and has classrooms in 16 First Nations communities.

KiHS offers communities

- The ability for Indigenous students to stay-at-home while pursuing their secondary education
- Access to over 80 courses in grades 9-12 in all streams (locally developed, academic, applied, college prep, university prep, and workplace)

KiHS offers teachers

- The opportunity to teach in a blended learning environment - face-to-face mentoring with online asynchronous instruction
- Opportunities to participate in land-based and cultural activities with your students
- The chance to join a growing, dedicated team of educators committed to supporting Indigenous students in the north
- Full-time employment with competitive salaries, benefits, pension (OTPP), professional development opportunities and NTIP certification

The successful candidate will be the classroom teacher in one of our partner communities, mentoring local students in their online courses in all subject areas. In addition, they will instruct online courses.

Applicants must be members of, or be eligible for membership in, the Ontario College of Teachers, intermediate and/or senior divisions. Teachers are expected to have diverse technological skills and a general aptitude with software in the context of learning.

Salary range: $41,062.32 - $107,466.32 as per the teacher salary grid based on education and experience.

KOBE offers a Comprehensive Benefit Package.

Applicants interested in this position are welcome to submit their resume and cover letter with three recent professional references including your current supervisor and a letter of permission for KO Board of Education to contact these references to: resumes@edu.knet.ca

As per policy, applicants should note that COVID-19 Immunization is a condition of employment within KOBE.

KOBE gives preference in hiring to members of the KO First Nations, and secondly to indigenous individuals from outside of the KO First Nations. Qualified members of the KO First Nations, as well as indigenous people from outside the KO First Nations are encouraged to apply.

Closing date: open until filled.

KOBE wishes to thank all applicants in advance. However, only those granted an interview will be contacted.
