Mental Health Leader – Clinical Focus

Full-Time Position

KOBE is seeking a Mental Health Leader to oversee mental health strategy development and student well-being initiatives. This role balances clinical leadership with resilience-building activities, ensuring students receive culturally relevant mental health support while thriving in their educational journey.

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement KOBE's Mental Health and Student Well-Being Strategy
- Provide board-wide leadership on mental health policies, education, and resources
- Oversee safe sober sites in Sioux Lookout, Dryden, and Thunder Bay
- Support capacity-building for educators and staff on mental health literacy
- Collaborate with community partners to develop service pathways for student support
- Ensure compliance with documentation and reporting requirements
- Travel to Northern First Nations communities and KOBE regional offices as needed

Qualifications & Experience:

- Graduate degree (Master's or PhD) in Clinical/School Psychology, Psychiatry, or Social Work preferred
- 7-10 years of experience in mental health service delivery, ideally with First Nations students
- Experience in mental health strategy development and program implementation
- Registered with a professional regulatory body in Ontario or another province
- Knowledge of School Mental Health Ontario (SMHO) is an asset

Skills & Attributes:

- Strong leadership, communication, and organizational skills
- Experience working in Northern First Nations communities
- Ability to work effectively within a multidisciplinary team
- Culturally aware and sensitive to Indigenous perspectives

Salary: 82,909 – 110,853 based on education and experience

Application Process: Submit resume, cover letter, and three recent professional references (including current supervisor) with a letter of permission to contact them to resumes@edu.knet.ca.

COVID-19 Policy: COVID-19 Immunization is a condition of employment within KOBE.

Hiring Preference: Preference is given to members of the KO First Nations, followed by Indigenous individuals from outside of the KO First Nations. Qualified applicants from these groups are encouraged to apply.

Closing Date: April 18, 2025
